

Renée Petropoulos: Experts & Amateurs

April 25 - May 12, 2019
Sheffer/Scheffler Arts Education Space

This interactive project investigates ways in which we all perform and speak both within public and private spaces. Working in collaboration with artists, students and the passerby, various audiences are engaged. The project utilizes sound, action and words as the walls of the museum are permeated from within and flow into parks, schools and bars.
