

Palm Springs Art Museum Architecture and Design Center, Edwards Harris Pavilion Holds Book Sale Featuring Thousands of Titles

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (August 31, 2015) – Palm Springs Art Museum Architecture and Design Center, Edwards Harris Pavilion is holding a book sale with thousands of new and used books featuring art, architecture, design, glass, sculpture, landscaping, photography, collectibles, and more. The event takes place on Saturday, September 19 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Architecture and Design Center located at 300 South Palm Canyon Drive in downtown Palm Springs.

All funds raised from this event will benefit the Lorraine Boccardo Archive Study Center and Erin Williams Hyman Library so that they can acquire additional resources and supplies. This archival and repository space at the Architecture and Design Center houses significant archives of legendary architects that can be accessed by scholars, architects and the general public for research by appointment.

Those purchasing books should bring their own bags or boxes. In addition, from 3 to 5 p.m. any remaining books will be offered at a 50 percent discount. Cash, credit cards and checks will be accepted.

For more information about the Architecture and Design Center visit www.psmuseum.org or call (760) 423-5260.

About Palm Springs Art Museum

Palm Springs Art Museum is the largest cultural institution in the Coachella Valley with three locations. The flagship building is in downtown Palm Springs featuring compelling art exhibitions, a vast permanent collection, and the Annenberg Theater, all in a 150,000 square foot, architecturally-significant building. Palm Springs Art Museum Architecture and Design Center, Edwards Harris Pavilion features exhibitions and programming that explore the rich topics of architecture and design. Palm Springs Art Museum in Palm Desert is an 8,400 square foot, Silver LEED-certified building named The Galen that presents rotating exhibitions and special collections. It is surrounded by the four-acre Faye Sarkowsky Sculpture Garden featuring important sculpture works. For more information, call 760-322-4800, visit www.psmuseum.org, and follow the museum on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.